

'Shane' Joins Parade
of All-Time Great
Motion Pictures

All my life I've heard about Jackson Hole, Wyoming, and the famed beauty of the snow-capped Grand Teton mountains which stand behind the cattle range. Well, they've put this magic land in the movies — and come up with "Shane," one of the grandest films ever made and a sure-fire contender for the 1953 Academy Award.

I saw it Sunday night at the Saenger. Maybe you think you're tired of "westerns," but I have news for you: This one's a spell-binder.

The story is the oldest known to Hollywood: How the wicked cattle-killing made war on the homesteaders; all about their trials and tribulations — until Robin Hood (that would be Shane, played by Alan Ladd) came to their rescue.

That's the story — but that's not the picture "Shane," not by a long shot. What's the difference between a mere "Western" and a classic that happens to be filmed in the West? Well, you've seen 'em and you know as well as I do.

There was "Stage Coach." It was shot in the Western desert. And "High Noon," the story of an old cattle town. Both had Western locales but both also had magnificent characterization and direction; that is, their people lived and breathed; were alternately afraid and then courageous — wrapping up in a cloak of suspense that made time on the screen stand still.

It stood still again last night on the Saenger screen, time did, as "Shane" wrapped the story of a worshipful small boy (Joey, played by 9-year-old Brandon DeWilde), his stalwart parents (Van Heflin and Jean Arthur), and the reformed gun-fighter who finally, to save a family he loved, oiled up his six-shooter and spread death and destruction while the Grand Teton gravely nodded their mist-shrouded heads and said, "This is justice."

Only the sharpest of Hollywood's sharp operators could put this together and come up with an all-time "great." He is George Stevens, who both produced and directed it for Paramount. He threw away the conventional sound stages, took his stars and heavy equipment clear up to the mountains of Wyoming — and came back with a picture you'll be seeing over and over again years from now.

Americans Would Revise UN Charter

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. S. delegation in the United Nations began pointing today for debate on proposals to revise the U. N. Charter. South Carolina's Gov. James F. Byrnes was set as principal U. S. spokesman on the major East-West dispute.

Byrnes returned from a weekend trip home to renew consideration on an allied subject—admission of new members—in the Special Political Committee this afternoon. 3 p.m. EST. The delegation was looking for that question to be finished by midweek, with Byrnes then moving to the Assembly's Legal Committee to handle the charter revision item.

The big question on revising the charter, whether to hold a special conference on the topic will not be decided until the 1955 Assembly. But to be prepared for that, The Netherlands, Argentina and Egypt all have suggested that this year's Assembly start preparatory work to get all the documents in order and to find out whether most countries incline toward favoring a conference.

Naked Negro Is Jailed, Dallas May Have Rapist

DALLAS, Tex., (UP) — A Negro nudist — possibly the long-sought knife wielder who has been prowling Dallas for a month — was captured today and police quickly exploded his alibi that he was in jail when a housewife was murdered and raped.

The suspect, Curtis Coleman, said he was in jail 15 days ago when Mrs. H. C. Parker, 29, mother of a four-year-old boy, was raped and murdered under a dark bridge. Before she died, she told a policeman.

"A Negro took me under the bridge and cut my throat," Coleman told police.

Police found that Coleman, arrested naked only four blocks from where another white woman was raped three times a month before the Parker murder was out of jail at the time of the murder.

He had been jailed the night before for drunkenness, but released in the morning on a suspended fine. He was rearrested two hours after the murder on a new drunkenness charge.

For months a Negro has been prowling Dallas naked and trying to get at women. He has raped several.

Mrs. Parker's murder came only a month after the latest case. A housewife was raped in her home by a nude Negro wielding a knife, then forced to accompany him to a nearby park where he raped her twice more.

Since the murder many sections of Dallas have been turned into armed camps, and nighttime police patrols have been doubled and tripled.

Rewards of more than $8,000 have been posted by The Dallas Times Herald, the Dallas Morning News, the Dallas Negro Chamber of Commerce and individuals. The Dallas Time Herald offered an additional $1,000 for arrest of the nude prowler if he turns out not to be the same man as the murderer.

A band of Negroes searching for the prowler set upon Coleman with clubs when they discovered him prowling naked around houses near Thomas and Routh Streets.

He claimed the vigilante took his clothes, but police doubted this. They found his clothes in a neat bundle 25 feet from where he was captured.

Mrs. Parker staggered onto busy street.

Nashville Editor Sues CIO Organizer

NASHVILLE (AP) — An Arkansas weekly newspaper editor is asking 7,750 in two slander suits filed against a CIO organizer and a former worker for Case-Nashville Cutlery Co.

Louis Graves, editor of the Nashville News, claimed in Howard County Circuit Court suits that he was slandered in purported statements by Jack Crump of Conway, CIO Automobile Workers organizer, and Perry Williams, former Case employee.

The editor said that in connection with a controversy over a CIO attempt to organize case employees, Crump and Williams allegedly stated that he and two car dealers ran Crump out of Nashville on threat of death. Graves is seeking $2,750 from Crump and $5,000 from Williams.

Employees of the firm, will vote Oct. 15 whether to affiliate with the CIO, AFL or neither.

The decision was written by Associate Justice Paul Ward and concurred in by three other justices.

Chief Justice Griffin Smith and Associate Justices Minor Milwee and George Rose Smith dissented but did not issue a written opinion.

Reviewing the testimony at the trial, Ward wrote that Williams was approached by Jesse Burns near the Baker Township polling place.

Burns told Williams that he had tried to vote but that officials at the Baker box told him they were out of blank ballots.

They suggested that if Burns obtained a piece of paper they would permit him to use it as a ballot.

Williams, the opinion said, gave Burns two blanks, one for Burns, and the second for Mrs. Burns, which he said he had obtained from another precinct where all votes had been cast.

Williams said he had gotten the ballots for the purpose of tabulating returns.

The opinion declared that Burns apparently was only trying to do a friend a favor and there was no evidence to indicate that he had sought to tell Burns how to vote or even that he encouraged him to vote.

Even if he had that in itself would not have indicated any fraudulent intent, the court majority said.

The court ordered a new trial of an Ouachita Circuit Court suit involving two promissory notes totaling around $5,800.

W. R. Atkins sued Henry Garner and E. L. Younis on the unpaid balances of the notes which were given after Garner and Younis purchased two lots of used automobiles for scrap from Atkins.

The trial court held that the Coffee for army troops stationed in Europe, Hawaii and the Canal Zone is purchased in this country, shipped overseas green and roasted locally.

Commies Set to Start Interviews

By MILO FARNET:

PANMUNJOM — The Communists indicated today they are ready to start interviews Wednesday for North Korean and Chinese war prisoners who refuse to return home. The POW repatriation commission took steps to get the delay-plagued negotiations under way.

The development came amidst charges by the U. N. Command that the Reds had shipped created combat aircraft into North Korea in violation of the armistice terms.

A UNC spokesman said an urgent request for investigation had been handed the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission, the four-nation body charged with policing the truce.

However, at the same time, Gen. John E. Hull, new U. N. Far Eastern commander, told newsmen he knew of "no serious" violations of the armistice by the Communists.

"There have been some indications of violations," he said. "But I know of no serious ones at present."

A spokesman for the U. N. military Armistice Commission, which announced the protest in a statement, declined comment on Hull's remarks.

Three Negroes Die in Wreck Near Gurdon

Seventeen persons died violently in Arkansas during the week ended last night — 12 of them on the state's highways.

Five deaths occurred over the weekend with three at Gurdon, one at Benton and another at Magnolia.

State Trooper Travis Ward said three Prescott Negroes died in an automobile when it plunged into Canyon Creek, about a half mile north of Gurdon on old U. S. Highway 67. The three were identified as Alexander Miller, 31; L. T. McDuffie, 33; and Odessa Leeks, 16. Two others were injured.

Slavs Demand Trieste Issue Be Discussed

BEograd, Yugoslavia, (AP) — Yugoslavia today demanded a conference with the United States, Britain and Italy to discuss last week's British-American decision on the future of Trieste.

Yugoslavia also sent a protest to the United Nations secretary general on the decision to withdraw British and American occupation troops from Zone A of the Trieste territory and turn it over to Italian administration.

Yugoslavia's new demands and protest were made against a background of increasing anti-American and anti-British feeling in Belgrade in the latest outburst an angry mob attacked a U. S. diplomatic official and smashed his nose.

The crowd was apparently stirred by President Tito's speech in Skopje yesterday in which he warned he would send troops marching into Trieste's zone A "at the moment."

Yugoslav occupation forces entered. Military leaves were cancelled for all Yugoslav troops but British and American soldiers continued preparations to withdraw from Zone A.

Withdrawal from London said the United States, Britain and France — apparently shocked by the bitterness of the Yugoslav reaction — were consulting urgently through diplomatic channels over the Yugoslav threat. Diplomatic informants said one idea up for discussion is a conference of Yugoslavia, Italian, American, British and French representatives soon to insure that peace is maintained.

Yugoslavia's call for a conference was laid down in a note presented first to British Ambassador Sir William Ivor Mallet and Woodruff Wallner, the U. S. charge d'affaires, and later to the Italian minister here.

The note declared the British-American decision concerning Trieste "is likely to endanger the maintenance of international peace and security, should it be carried into effect."

The note added that this country's government remains conscious of its obligations emanating from the charter of the United Nations.

Most-Wanted Criminal Is Jailed

DUNN CENTER, N. D., (UP) — A two-year unit for George William Krendlich, 30, one of the nation's 10 most wanted criminals, came to an end today in the desolate Western North Dakota lands, a county corner said.

Dunn County Coroner M. A. Olson said FBI agents had positively identified a body found along a lonely country road Sunday as that of Krendlich of Akron, O., who had been wanted by law officers for two years for the slaying of his fiancée, Juanita Bailey 23. The man found had been dead two or three weeks.

(However, the FBI in Minneapolis said that no positive identification had been made).

Olson said an inquest would be called to determine whether Krendlich took his own life. A hose was connected to the exhaust pipe of the jeep and run into the vehicle. The key was turned on.

Krendlich, a wartime bomber pilot, was last seen in Akron April 22, 1951, when he left with his fiancée, a divorcee. Her body was found in Turtle Creek in Bracken County, Ky. May 10 of that year, weighted down with a railroad tie and bound with barbed wire, Krendlich's car was later found in Cincinnati with blood on the seat covers.

Hall and Heady Woman Admit Killing Youth

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Dope addict Carl Austin Hall and his alcoholic woman friend confessed today they plotted 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease's slaying even before he was kidnapped.

The government immediately stepped back into the case under the Lindbergh kidnapping law. Only a short time before Bobby, well son of a respected Kansas family, and Mrs. Bonnie Brown, 41, signed statements, saying they took little Bobby across the state line into Kansas where Hall killed him shortly after the kidnapping in Kansas after the kidnapping in Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.

Hall, in his new confession, admitted he fired a bullet into the right side of the little boy's head. Only a short time before Bobby had been playing with schoolmates.

It was Mrs. Heady who loved Bobby from a nun at the boy's school on the pretext she was his aunt.

Their confessions were announced by the FBI, which said the two kidnappers admitted digging the boy's grave behind Mrs. Heady's home in St. Joseph, Mo., before the kidnapping.

Thus the couple plotted the little boy's death even before the kidnapping took place. The FBI disclosed the time found over Bobby's body was bought before the abduction.

At Kansas City federal kidnapping charges were filed before U.S. Commissioner C. H. Thompson. Two state charges are pending against the couple, one for murder at St. Joseph and the other for kidnapping at Kansas City.

The opinion here was that the federal government would retain jurisdiction and put the couple on federal trial at Kansas City.

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The FBI said today Carl Austin Hall, and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, have confessed that they alone kidnapped Bobby Greenlease and Hall killed the boy.

Director J. Edgar Hoover said Hall, 31, and his 41-year-old girlfriend have confessed, too, that Bobby's grave was dug in her backyard in St. Joseph, Mo., and time was purchased to put over his body even before the 6-year-old child was abducted.

Hoover said it has been determined that a point in Kansas, about 12 miles from Kansas City, Mo., where Bobby was abducted, was the actual site of the killing.

At Kansas City, Edward L. Scheidler, U.S. District Attorney, said the fact the kidnapping was conducted in Missouri qualified Kansas City as the trial site for the couple.

He said kidnapping charges would be filed in Kansas City today, and the couple returned there from St. Louis as quickly as possible for a hearing.

The kidnapping charges are covered under the Lindbergh law. This statute carries a possible

Bell Schedule Gives Home Phones Break

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. today filed a proposed rate schedule which would reduce residential phone rates from five cents to 20 cents a month.

The schedule filed with the Arkansas Public Service Commission, also would increase pay telephone rates from the present five cents to 10 cents per call, and about 10 cents per person calls within the state from five to 10 cents.

The company said the net change will enable it to collect an additional $2,549,102 from telephone users in Arkansas.

The PSC last week authorized Southwestern Bell to increase its rates by $2,550,000. The order followed lengthy hearings which began last April.

The new schedule, carrying out the PSC order, will be effective with commission approval, but there will be no refund to subscribers, a telephone company spokesman said.

Meanwhile, cities protesting the increase have indicated they will appeal the PSC order.

ing suicide, which he threatened to do.
"I didn't kill nobody," Wable muttered to himself. "I think I know who did. I've got friends that'll get him. But I ain't telling you his name until I get back to Jonesville."

Wable was dressed in his road-printed clothes to talk with Under-sheriff Walter Gier and newsman.
He was captured last night following a 90-mile an hour chase by state police. He was accompanied by two men who he said he had picked up in the Mojave Desert.
The three were sought for the robbery of an Albuquerque filling station.

The trio abandoned their car.
Wable was captured on a tip from
Mr. C. W. Smith, a Helen,
N. M., man who spotted Wable hitchhiking and notified police.
She and a companion, Miss Midge Hanson, will probably get the $11,000 offered for information leading to the arrest of the turnpike killer.

The rabid bodies of the two truck drivers, Harry E. Pitts, 30, Bowling Green, Va., and Lester
B. Woodward, 30, Duncannon, Pa., were found within three days of each other last July. Their deaths brought terror to the highway.
Truckers traveled only in convoys
and slept only under lights at roadside cafes and truck stops.

Wable said he was working in Cleveland at the time of the murder,
"but I don't remember where."

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—An Arizonan, John Wable, 24, was arrested late last night on a Pennsylvania warrant charging him with the "phantom of the Turnpike"
murders after a 20-mile chase by New Mexico state police.
Wable, described as "highly dangerous," said a reporter a few hours after his capture he had slithering in a small, dark cell in the Hermosa County Jail.

"I'm not guilty. I don't know anything about the murders. I'm just cold and tired."
Only a while before the lanky,
medium-sized Wable had led state police a high-speed automobile chase and then escaped on foot after two companions "who picked him up in California" were captured.

daily for the past three Sundays,
arrived at the hospital at 2 p. m.
yesterday.

It had been the practice of the hospital to release Wable to his wife or the family could visit. A hospital spokesman said they usually drove around the hospital grounds.

The children, ranging from eight months to nine years of age, were left at the hospital.

About 2:46 p. m., a visitor reported finding the body beside the family car, parked near a fence in an isolated section of the reservation.

Footprints on the hood indicated the patient might have used the car as a ladder to leap the fence.
Footprints also were found outside the fence.

Wable, described as a 5-foot, 7-
brown eyed blond, was voluntarily
admitted to the hospital on Sept.
15, hospital officials said. A spokesman said his case was diagnosed as schizophrenia (dual personality), and that he also had received a treatment at the Oklahoma State Hospital, Vinita.

Police said last night that Wable's parents live in Yellville, Ark., and he has other relatives in Fort Smith, Ark., and Tahlequah.

"A Negro took me under the bridge and cut my throat," Hester said. "The murder came with Dallas

woman was attacked by a nude Negro

Furniture Workers Strike Settled

FORT SMITH, Ark.—A strike at seven furniture manufacturing plants were settled here today and a majority of the 1,200 idle workers were expected to return to work by tomorrow.

The settlement was announced
jointly by Milton Kropp, spokesman for the manufacturers, and
D. C. Cherry, president of Local 270 of the CIO Furniture Workers.

The statement said the workers generally received a five-cent an hour increase. The previous hourly rate was not disclosed. Employees also received two additional paid holidays and other benefits.

The workers struck the plants
Oct. 1 on expiration of their old contract.

The affected firms are Ballman-
Cummings Furniture Co., Bowler
Queen, Inc., Fort Smith Chair
Co., Fort Smith Couch and Bedding
Co., Fort Smith Folding Bed and Table Co., Garrison Furniture Co.,
and Mitchell Manufacturing Co.

Since 1945 the number of grain combines in the South has nearly tripled, and there are now 10 times as many combine pickers and seven times as many hay balers.

Wable finally was captured when a woman notified police she had seen him hitchhiking on the outskirts of Helen. He gave up without a struggle.

He is accused of shooting Harry
E. Pitts, 30, Bowling Green, Va., and Lester B. Woodward, 30, Duncannon, Pa., last July on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, a 327-mile super highway running from the Ohio border to near Philadelphia.

The two truck drivers were shot in the head as they slept in their parked truck. Their bodies were found within three days of each other. Police said they had been robbed.

Wable, alone in the 4-by-7 foot lightless cell, denied knowing anything about the foreign-made pistol used in the two killings and believed to be his.

LOTS OF FAITH—An unidentified "believer" at Woodside Community Mission in Greenville, S. C., confirms her faith by holding a puff adder and a copperhead above her head. The snake-handling sect is holding a series of revivals, and Minister J. I. Schackelford promises more and larger serpents will be imported for future meetings.

Hall and Heady

death penalty when the victim of a kidnapping is harmed. The federal law can be invoked only when a state line is crossed.

Earlier, when it appeared no state line had been crossed, the federal government and announcement that prosecution of Hall and Mrs. Heady would be left to the state of Missouri.

With the new confessions—which Hoover said were signed statements—the FBI called off a hunt
for Tom Marsh, the tattooed man whose name was brought into the case soon after the arrest of Hall
and Mrs. Heady.

Hall's story at that time was that Marsh, a 37-year-old ex-convict,
had killed Bobby.

Atty. Gen. Brownell had announceed late last week that the federal government would stop aside in favor of Missouri state prosecution, since there was no evidence then
that a state line had been crossed.

Hoover said today, however,
that the site of the murder has been definitely located in the state of Kansas about one and one-half miles off of Route 69 and about 12 miles outside of Kansas City, Mo.

A mechanical pencil of a type known to have been in the boy's possession at the time of his abduction was found at this site, the announcement said.

Hoover said the FBI laboratory
has also identified a bullet embedded in the floor mat of a 1951 Plymouth station wagon owned by Mrs. Heady, and used in the abduction, as having been fired from Hall's .38 caliber revolver.

The revolver was recovered by St. Louis police at the time they took Hall into custody a week ago.
The station wagon, Hoover said,
also had blood stains.

Hoover said that when Hall and Mrs. Heady were confronted with this evidence, they then made their confession to the FBI.

In an earlier confession, shortly after his arrest, Hall admitted ab-ducting the boy and declared that Marsh had killed Bobby.

Hoover said that Hall has now
absolved Marsh of any connection with the crime. Mrs. Heady confirms Hall's present story, Hoover said.

As a result, the FBI is making
no search for Marsh.

Hoover's announcement said
nothing as to the $300,000 of ransom money still unaccounted for.

Bobby's wealthy parents paid $800,000 to the kidnappers.
Hall had a little less than half of this in his possession when arrested.

His story at that time was that he got drunk and must have lost a suitcase containing half the ransom money.

notes had been canceled and re-

kins.

The Supreme Court said the trial
judge erred in permitting the jury to consider an alleged verbal agreement which Garner and Youns said modified a written contract.

The court commented that it consistently had held that a written contract could not be changed by a verbal agreement.

men on charges of assault to kill.
The four-justice majority said that the judge's admonition to the witness, which included "threats of prosecution for perjury," tended to intimidate her even though the remarks were not made in the presence of the jury.

For this reason, the court reversed a conviction and two-year sentence against J. L. Watkins.

It upheld a sentence of one and one-half years against Richard Mallock and of one year against Hayward Broomfield.

The intimidation was made an issue in a motion for a new trial in behalf of Watkins but not in similar motions in behalf of the other two.

All three men were convicted in Dallas Circuit Court in connection with a gunfight in which Oscar Hawkins was wounded.

Associate Justice J. S. Holt wrote
the majority opinion.
Chief Justice Griffin Smith and Associate Justices Ed McFadin
and Minor Milbree dissented from the reversal in the Watkins case.

The court ruled unconstitutional
a 1951 act fixing fees in justice of the peace courts in Baxter County.

The opinion held that the act—
No. 45—violated a constitutional prohibition against local or special acts. The act applied only to Baxter County.

Constitutionality of the law was raised in an appeal by Roy A.
Wilson, who was fined $5 and costs of around $25 for public drunken-

Ways of TV Folks Strange at Times

JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UP)—Sometimes
the ways of television folks make you wonder.

Wonder, for example, why they are in such a hurried hurry to start color television.

Who is clamoring for it besides the people running television? Certainly not the public.

The public would be happy if the next few years were just spent in eliminating the technical bugs
from present black-and-white telecasting, to say nothing of a considerable improvement in the thinking and planning that goes behind the programming.

Television has been big-time entertainment scarcely five years. Do the powers that be have so little confidence in their product that they feel already they must hypo the medium via color in order to keep the money rolling in both from sponsors of programs and buyers of sets? How about first trying to eliminate the need of elaborate outdoor aerials for perfect TV reception? There was a time when radio needed the cumbersome aerial, too, but that was eliminated many years ago.

It's true that things move at a rapid pace these days and that a recent estimate placed TV sets at around 25,000,000, but the fact remains that many billions in this country still do not have television available, and this situation promises to prevail for a considerable time to come.

If color TV sets a good foothold
within the next couple of years,
as seems to be the time schedule,
what can the industry look forward to after the United pictures have been available for five or six years—3D TV—or 4D?

After the first five years as relatively big-time entertainment,
radio in 1935 still had its biggest 10 years ahead of it. The poor, beleaguered movie industry has had technicolor and other color processes available for more than a decade, and while it's true that the number of color films grows each year, the majority of movies are still in black and white and the public hasn't yet reached the point

where it refuses to accept a film
simply because it isn't in color.

Despite the various projects for subscription television, the shows are still free, although costs to sponsors have soared to almost incredible heights. Color telecasts can only be considerably more expensive than black-and-white. How many sponsors can afford to pick up the check for the public's free entertainment under such circumstances?

The television powers make much of the fact that they want color TV to be in an advanced stage—they imply that they want it to be nearly perfect—before they put it before the public; that they don't want it to start relatively, from scratch as did black-and-white TV. Any of the processes demonstrated so far is a long way from that goal. Picture and color definition may be better in one year, the majority of movies are

still in black and white and the
public hasn't yet reached the point
where it refuses to accept a film
simply because it isn't in color.

Carp's Relative Goldfish, closely related to the carp, is a native of China, where it was cultivated centuries ago. It was said to have been brought into Europe for Madame de Pompadour.
During their centuries of cultivation, the Japanese originated many unusual types.

I could dream up, honey." "Do you really think so?" asked Trellis Mae, flattered.

"Sure thing. Look how easy you guess all the answers on those TV giveaway shows."

"Let's try it—just for fun," said his wife, falling into the trap. "Give me five questions. But don't make them too hard."

"Okay, ready?"

"Ready."

"What state has the largest population?"

"That's easy, Texas."

"Wrong. It's New York. Whose picture is on a $20 bill?"

"You haven't brought one home in years. How would I know? It must be a Republican, President McKinley? No, Teddy Roosevelt."

"Wrong. It's Andrew Jackson, a Democrat. He got on by mistake. How do you spell etiquette?"

"E-T-I-Q-U-E-T-E," said Trellis Mae. "And I know what it is, which is more than some husbands I could name do."

"Wrong again. Now, can you identify Bertha?"

"Of course, silly. It's one of those cut little hats Frenchmen wear."

"Wrong. He's an ex-Russian leader now missing. Last question. You can't miss this one. Who said, 'Give me liberty or give me death'?"

"Henry Patrick Henry Patrick," yelled Trellis Mae.

"Well, his friends called him Patrick Henry," said Wilbur. "But I'll give you half on that one—10."

"You cheated!" cried Trellis Mae. "Asking me all that junk! As if anybody really cared. You didn't ask me a single important question."

"Okay," said Wilbur coolly. "Go ahead and ask me five questions more important than that. Think hard now?"

"I don't have to think. Ready?"

"Ready."

"When is my mother's birthday?"

"What is the price of butter a pound? What vegetable will give you the most vitamins for the least calories? How can I possibly make my old cloth coat last another winter? What department stores is having a sale of men's $5 white shirts for $2.95 tomorrow, and I'm going to buy you three—they're such a bargain?"

Wilbur just stared at her, silent and slack-jawed.

"Those are really important questions," said Trellis Mae. "And you scored zero. Another thing. I did get a divorce from you in this state, do you know how much alimony you'd have to pay?"

"No, do you?"

"Certainly," said Trellis Mae. "And now just one final question. If there is somebody stupid in this house about things that really matter, who...do you think it is?"

"No comment," said Wilbur, although he knew the only possible answer.

British Rank Ike Another Coolidge

LONDON (AP)—A columnist for the Daily Mirror, Britain's most widely read daily newspaper, declared today Dwight D. Eisenhower "may yet rank with Harding and Coolidge as one of the most disastrous presidents of the United States."

Columnist William Neil Connor, who writes under the pen name Cassandra, said more and more Americans are asking themselves, "Is he just an amiable bungler?"

Connor, now on a tour of the United States, said:

"The record of his first 250 days as President is a mixture of hesitancy, expedience, golf, political vacuity, holiday-making and that misplaced and frightening bonhomie that people sometimes show when they are trying to please everybody everywhere at the same time."

"Goodwill is an estimable virtue, but when it manifests itself in the person of the most powerful and responsible individual in the United States, it may be catastrophic."

"You just can't tell who the man is trying to satisfy next."

"President Eisenhower's latest statement trying to clear up the confusion and near-panic over the progress of Soviet atomic weapons was a floodlight that cast its glare backwards into the chaos and confusion of his own administration."

"He made his reputation in World War II as a great co-ordinator of military affairs. In policies the impression he gives is that of a sleeping driver in a runaway train."

"One explanation is that he is afraid to take control. The other is that he is just plain lazy and it is this second theory that is arousing comment here in the United States."

200,000 in Catholic Public Prayer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 30,000 Roman Catholic men marched in solemn procession through downtown Philadelphia last night, reciting aloud the rosary of the Virgin Mary in a public prayer for peace and conversion of the Communist world to Christianity.

At the end of the line of march, a crowd estimated at 250,000 gathered on the vast stretches of the Benjamin Franklin Parkway to assist at the first outdoor evening mass in the history of the archdiocese and the second such service in the United States.

The religious rally was dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima. According to Catholic teaching, the Virgin Mary appeared to a group of Portuguese children at Fatima on Oct. 13, 1917, and asked them to pray for peace and the conversion of Russia to Christianity.

The parkway had been converted into an amphitheater with a huge, glass-enclosed altar erected in the center of a traffic circle. Along the flood-lighted altar stood a statue of Our Lady of Fatima, some 82 feet above street level.

The Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C. S. C. archbishop of Philadelphia who delivered the sermon, asked for prayers for local, state and national government officials in the great halls of their office, and finally for peace and the conversion of the Communist world.

Before the archbishop spoke, the Rt. Rev. John J. McKeena, read a telegram sent by Archbishop O'Hara to the Polish ambassador to the United States, Josef Wlodek.

The message mentioned the rally which had assembled "for public worship...to pray for peace and to beg God to enlighten the minds and move the hearts of the terrorists, who have imprisoned Bishop Maczmarek and impeded Cardinal Wyszynski in his functions..."

"In solemn pontifical mass tonight we pray that Poland and her sister states now enslaved by communism may soon be restored to the dignity under God they have earned in the past as saviors of European civilization."

Bishop Czeslaw Maczmarek was sentenced last month by a Polish military court to 12 years in prison on charges of spying for the Vatican.

On Sept. 28, Warsaw radio announced that Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński, primate of Poland, had been relieved of his church post and "allowed to withdraw into a Polish monastery."

The cardinal was accused in the broadcast of violating Poland's church-state agreement.

The Vatican has denounced the action taken against the two prelates and vigorously denied charges made against them.

DOROTHY DIX

Husband Fond Of Sprees

Dear Miss Dix: My husband just doesn't want to grow up and take on his responsibilities as head of the family. All week long he has the comforts of a well-kept home, and a cheerful, loving wife. Then on weekends he expects the freedom of going out with the boys, drinking and dancing. He doesn't want me along on these night-clubbing expeditions, insisting that I'd only be spoiling his good times. Most of his associates on these sprees are single or divorced people. I feel the best solution for us would be to live our own lives, while continuing to share the home. He doesn't like the idea of my going out, yet claims that his own relaxation depends on going out alone. Should I allow him to continue along these lines, or insist on going along with him, or try to make him stay home more often? We have three children and have been married for ten years.

S. G. V.

His Merry Week-Ends

Answer: What your husband lacks is domesticity. He makes up for with a silver tongue that apparently bewitches you into believing anything. You say he likes to spend his week-ends with the boys, yet one of the amusements on these recreational bouts is dancing. Just who is fooling whom? It seems to be his conviction that parking your week's allowance on the table constitutes a fulfillment of all his family obligation, and you are aiding and abetting him by complacently accepting his delusion. You have the type man who will get away with anything he can, and you are giving him plenty of scope. Following the lines into which your marriage has been routed will end with complete loss of your children's respect for you both. They will resent their father's continued absence, and your own acceptance of it. Try eliminating some of the home comforts until dad contributes his share of matrimonial responsibilities. His childish dodging of shouldering chores isn't doing any good. As with a child, a little firmness will set him in a more conventional pattern. Better exercise firmness if you want to save your marriage.

Dear Miss Dix: After an unfortunate first marriage, contracted when I was very young, I married a wonderful man and we have five children. I have one child from the first union, and she is my problem. She is now 15 years old and though she lives with her father, she would rather be with me, where she would have a good home. Our children are well brought up and are getting proper schooling. How can I manage to have my daughter?

MRS. HAZEL W.

Answer: The problem should be taken up with a lawyer, or the court that awarded custody to the father. If her father is good to her, it's doubtful if you can regain her, but if she is unhappy with him, or there is any indication of neglect, the custody order may be reversed. The girl is almost old enough to come to you of her own accord, so even if she isn't permitted to live with you for a while, patience will soon settle everything for you both.

Dear Miss Dix: I'm in love with a boy, 22, but recently learned that he hasn't been true to me. Should I continue to go with him?

BRENDA

Answer: If you can't trust a young man as a friend, you scarcely could expect fidelity from him as a husband. I doubt if he's worth continuing the friendship.

General Strike Called in Guiana

By BEN F. MEYER

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana — Ousted leftist Cabinet ministers in British Guiana's South American Colony launched a general strike and anti-British boycott today but the Pan-American Day holiday delayed any effects until tomorrow.

Priest Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan and his People's Progressive Party (PPP) had called the walk-out and cold-shoulder treatment "because our country has been invaded by foreign troops and our democratic rights have been taken away."

British rushed 600 Royal Welsh Fusiliers here from Jamaica last week and kicked out Jagan and the five other PP Cabinet ministers Friday, charging they were plotting to bring the 15,000-square mile colony of 438,000 persons under domination of communists linked with Russia.

The Privy Council in London also suspended the Constitution granted the colony five months earlier and

3 Favorites Have Yet to Win Pro Game

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Could Commissioner Bert Bell have been thinking only of one half of the National Football League when he made the prediction that every team in the league would be stronger and in the thick of the pennant fight?

League's 34th season and three teams in the Eastern Conference—Philadelphia, Chicago's Cardinals and New York—have not won a game.

By contrast the Western Conference has only one winless team—the Green Bay Packers.

The standings after one game Saturday and five yesterday how the champion Detroit Lions leading the Western division with three victories in as many starts. But the San Francisco 49ers, Baltimore Colts and the Los Angeles Rams are only a game back, each with 2 and 1 records.

In the Eastern Conference, the Cleveland Browns hold their usual place at the top but the surprising Washington Redskins also have a perfect record.

However, the Redskins have one less victory, having been tied by the Eagles. Pittsburgh's Steelers trailed by a game, the Lions took over the undisputed lead of their division yesterday by edging the 49ers 24-21. Baltimore and Los Angeles remained in strong contention with respective 10-14 and 36-20 victories over the Chicago Bears and Green Bay.

Cleveland sat out yesterday after beating the Eagles 37-13 in a Saturday night contest. The Redskins turned in their second triumph in a Sunday affair, edging the Giants 13-9 and Pittsburgh scored 17 points in the last quarter for a 31-24 conquest of the Chicago Cardinals.

The winning touchdown in yesterday's Detroit-San Francisco thriller came in the third period on a 49-yard pass from Bobby Layne to Leon Hart. Doak Walker passed of Cloyce Box for another TD and K. Morley breathed easier—now picked up seven points with his fire was out.

Mrs. John P. Cox and Mr. Bert Neale T. Waddo were Wednesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Davis.

Mrs. Jack Harrell, Mrs. Marion Pounds, Mrs. Adam Guthrie, Jr., and Mrs. Vaughn Bright spent Wednesday in Little Rock.

Mrs. Milford Daniel and son, Bobby, were Wednesday visitors in Little Rock.

including a 23-yard field goal.

The 49ers found themselves stymied through the last 22 minutes after losing their ace quarterback, Y. A. Tittle, who fractured a cheekbone scoring the West Coast eleven's final touchdown in the third quarter.

Jack Scarbath, All-American from Maryland, was the big gun in the Redskins victory. Two passes, covering a total of 88 yards, gave them their touchdown and Bill Dudley booted the remaining points.

Jimmy Finks completed 23 of 44 passes, two for touchdowns, but the Steelers needed Nick Bolko-vic's 23-yard last period field goal to beat the Cards.

Passing also played a big role in the victories of Baltimore and Los Angeles. The Colts' Fred Enke completed 14 out of 31 for 230 yards and two touchdowns while Norm Van Brocklin and Rookie Rudy Bukich riddled the Packers' defense with accurate aeriels.

BREATHING EASIER

THIEVES LOSE
ARAPAHO, Okla. (AP) Bank robbers who were hoping for a big haul after they broke into the Custer National Bank here came up with a deficit instead.

An alert cashier showed up after dark to take care of some unfinished business and surprised the burglars. They hurriedly escaped, leaving behind an expensive set of drills, dynamite and caps.

Attendance Drops at Stock Show

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Livestock Show attendance dropped 8,834 this year under 1952, show officials said when the 14th annual event closed here Saturday night.

Manager Clyde Byrd said attendance was 172,090 compared to 180,924 in 1952.

"Considering the drought and the low livestock prices, we're very happy," said Byrd, adding that there would be "definite changes" in the 1954 presentation. He didn't elaborate on the changes, but said they would be discussed at the next Arkansas Livestock Show Association board meeting.

FFA and 4-H Club members sold 101 steers at Saturday's annual auction, sponsored by the Greater Little Rock Chamber of Commerce.

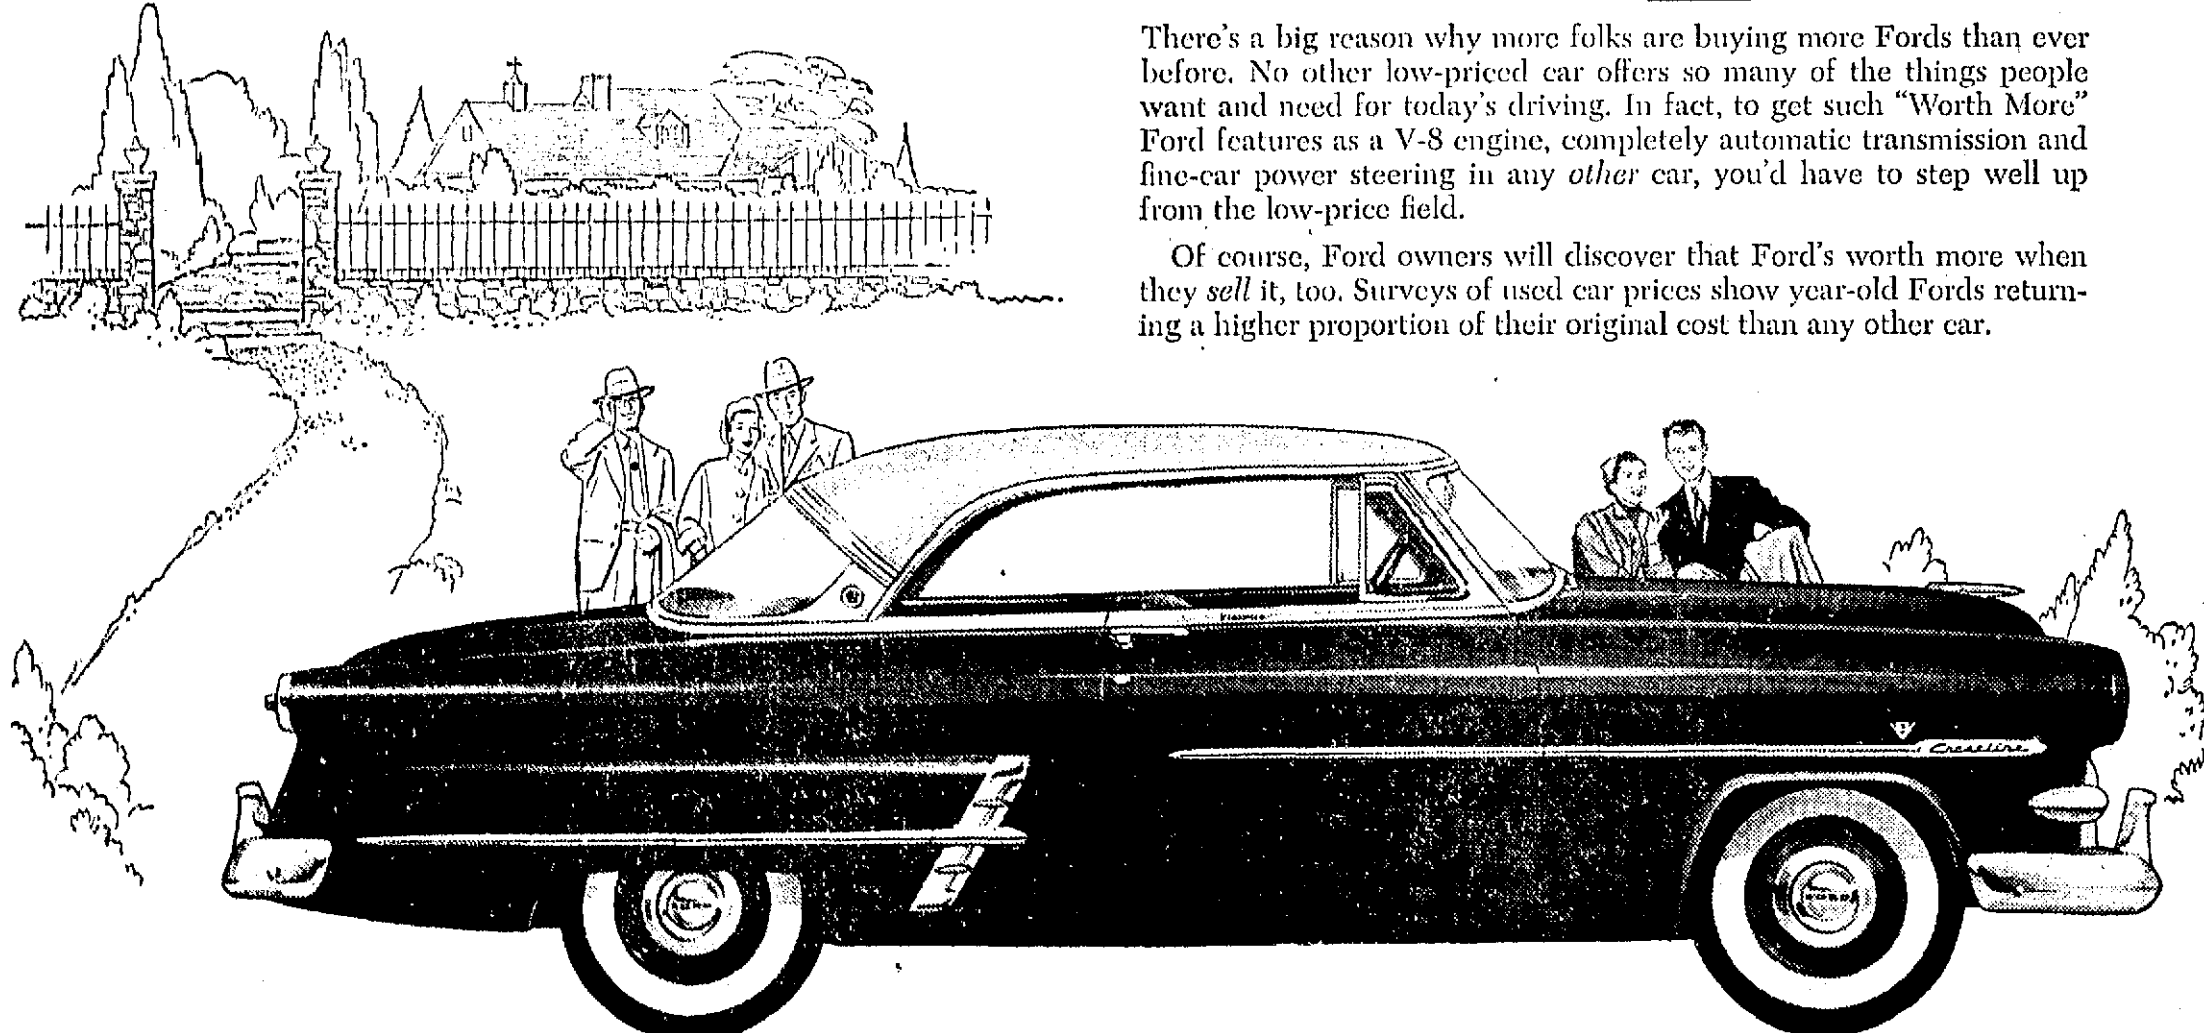

In the barrow sale, 247 animals brought an estimated $50,000.

Most-liked low-priced car

...among people who want more for their money when they buy...and more money when they sell!

There's a big reason why more folks are buying more Fords than ever before. No other low-priced car offers so many of the things people want and need for today's driving. In fact, to get such "Worth More" Ford features as a V-8 engine, completely automatic transmission and fine-car power steering in any other car, you'd have to step well up from the low-price field.

Of course, Ford owners will discover that Ford's worth more when they sell it, too. Surveys of used car prices show year-old Fords returning a higher proportion of their original cost than any other car.

because it's most like high-priced cars

...more and more people are considering Ford as the one fine car in the low-price field!

It's hard to believe that a car which is built like the finest still sells in the low-price field. Yet a Ford with its hulltight Crestmark body, its Full-Circle Visibility (most in its field), its new fine car ride and roomy luggage locker (roomiest in its field) delivers at a figure that keeps it right down in its price class.

Ford's the only low-priced car which offers you a choice of a completely automatic transmission (Fordomatic), Overdrive or Conventional Drive. And Ford Master-Guide, available on all V-8 models, is the last word in power steering... makes turning up to 75% easier, yet retains the natural feel of the wheel on the straightaway.

See... Value Check... Test Drive the Ford of your choice at your Ford Dealer's. Find out why Ford is America's "Worth More" car.

Ford's 110-h.p. V-8 is the same type of engine now powering America's finest (and costliest) cars. And Ford's Mileage Maker Six is the most modern Six in the industry.
